

Antinori Wine Evening with Luca Soldo

Luca Soldo is UK ambassador for Antinori estates. The Antinori family have been producing wine in Tuscany for six centuries, 26 generations of uninterrupted family ownership. The first mention of the family is in 1188 when they worked in the silk trade, turning to wine in 1385. Now expanded throughout Italy and around the world. "Ancient roots play an important role in our philosophy, but they have never held back our spirit of innovation"
